CHURCH PARTICIPATION AND CHRISTIAN AFFIRMATION

Covenant Christian Schools takes great care to admit families, not merely children of a family. We are a community of Christian families with largely common aspirations, beliefs, and goals. At least one parent must profess to be a Christian and give expression to that profession by active participation in a local church.

STUDENT'S WEEKLY SCHEDULE

The academic requirements at CCMS are rigorous and require a strong family commitment. Will your student be participating in any extracurriculars or other classes outside of CCS this year? If so, what?

FAMILY BELIEFS

We believe:

- In one God, the Creator of all things.
- In the triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- That the Scriptures are inspired, inerrant, infallible, and authoritative for all matters of practice and faith.
- In the incarnation of the second person of the Trinity, Jesus Christ, who was born of the Virgin Mary and is like us in all things except sin.
- That this Jesus Christ is truly God and is identical with the Father and the Holy Spirit in all His attributes.
- That Jesus is truly God and truly man, existing as one person in two natures.
- That humanity was created in God's image, very good, and to glorify and enjoy Him forever, but that through the fall of Adam, humanity fell from its high estate, so that all are born in sin, commit actual sins, and therefore need a Savior, provided for us in the God-Man, Jesus Christ.
